Re: L.G.Philips LCD Co., Ltd. v. ViewSonic Corporation et al.
U.S. District Court Case No. 04-343 JJF

Dear Cormac:

I write in response to your March 22, 2007 letter. We find your letter of March 22, 2007 to be nothing more than an attempt to further delay a meet and confer regarding the issues raised in my March 15, 2007 letter. Despite your repeated promises to provide available dates for a meet and confer, we have yet to hear from you or anyone from your team regarding scheduling a meet and confer. To prevent further delay, we request that you immediately provide available times for a meet and confer on March 26 or 27, 2007. If we do not hear from you, we will raise this issue with the Special Master

My March 21, 2007 letter explained in detail why the Tatung Defendants are entitled to inspect the alleged Tatung products in LPL's possession. Your letter of March 22, 2007 was silent on this issue and once again failed to offer any dates for the inspection. Accordingly, please immediately provide suitable dates for the inspection of all alleged Tatung products in LPL's possession.

Additionally, upon reviewing LPL's document production, it appears that there are numerous categories of documents that have not been produced despite LPL's agreement to produce such documents. The specific requests and categories of documents have been detailed in my previous letters. Please confirm that LPL has performed and completed a diligent search and that all responsive documents have been produced. If no responsive documents can be located, LPL should supplement its responses to the document requests to so indicate.
